Shoot date

The Photographer, their employees and persons authorised by them for the purposes of photography shall, at their own risk, have permission to enter upon and use those parts of the Property discussed and expressly agreed between the photographer or their nominated representative and the Owner.

The proposed arrangements for photography on the Property are set out in the Agreed Terms below. No photography beyond what appears in this document shall take place without prior agreement of the Owner or their representative.

The terms and conditions of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect during any further period the Owner may permit for the completion of the photography.

The Photographer agrees to make good forthwith to the satisfaction of the Owner or pay the reasonable cost of making good any damage or loss to the Property resulting from the Photographer's use of the Property. Such making good or reparation will need to be made before the Companies representatives vacate the property.

The Photographer agrees to pay whatever reasonable financial penalties are imposed on it by the Owner as a result of any infringements (i.e. extra vehicles, personnel, extra time on location etc.) of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

The Photographer will indemnify and keep indemnified the Owner against all actions, proceedings, costs, claims and demands which may be brought, or made against the Owner in respect of personal injury and/or damage to Property arising directly out of the activities in connection with the photography.

The Photographer will provide evidence of sufficient insurance policies to cover its liabilities under this agreement. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the Laws of England.
